The Bormio-Alta Badia and Alta Badia-Bormio routes are similar to those of “La Pedalata Tosta”, but the rides are at the more relaxed pace of bike-packing. The bikes are equipped with bike-packing bags provided by our hotels so that cyclists can carry their essentials for the journey. The keyword is “exploration” with the program being designed so that cyclists will enjoy stops and overnight stays in the charming villages along the way.

THE WORD “LIEVE” IN ITALIAN MEANS LIGHT, THE LIGHTER VERSION OF THE TOUR “LA PEDALATA TOSTA”.

KLAUS'S AND DANIELE'S SUGGESTIONS

- Try to limit your luggage to the essentials, you will appreciate it every time you tackle a climb
- Your bike will be different to ride with bike-packing bags, so start slowly to get used to the different weight
- The route is demanding and you will feel the weight of the luggage at the end of the day, so try to keep a steady pace in order to be able to enjoy the different landscapes
- In every village or town, there are fountains to fill up your water bottles
