LA PEDALATA

BORMIO-ALTA BADIA

The idea of combining these realities through cycling was born by Daniele "Stelvio-man" and Klaus, one night in front of a beer.

"LA PEDALATA" is a phrase to demand your immediate attention not only because of the route but because of a real two-wheeled adventure to be shared with friends who have the same passion.

Legendary peaks such as the Stelvio, Gavia and mountains with breathtaking views and unique colours as the Dolomites will be the perfect setting for this event that we propose can be experienced in two different ways.

The Stelvio, the Gavia and the mountain passes of the Dolomites are legendary destinations for cyclists worldwide.

These epic peaks are also icons of the northern Italian regions where they are located. The inhabitants of these regions, with their varied cultures, histories and languages, all share a love and respect for nature in this unique landscape. Bormio, with its dark and imposing peaks, and Alta Badia, surrounded by the softness of the pale mountains, form the backdrop of La Pedalata. More than a simple tour, La Pedalata is an experience in which cyclists connect with these majestic mountains.
